

Time is not of Years.

I saw a castle grim and grey, Standing alone on a rocky way,
And crumbling slowly to decay, Its mouldering stones appear;
And a sparkling rill danced on near by, Blithely as it had done for aye:
And it seemed to me, as it gushed, to say
"Oh! time is not of years!"

I saw the pomp of the lordly great, Passing away from its ancient state, Oblivion over their name and fate,
Her sepulchre appears;
And I heard a voice from the mighty past, Calling the names which forever last,
And shouting loud as the winter blast,
"Oh, time is not of years!"

I saw a girl in her beauty's prime, Worn with the weight of care and crime, Mourning the waste of her girlhood's time With a wee too wild for tears;
And an old man, tossing a child's play,
With silver hair and an eye whose ray, As it glanced at the blue sky seemed to say
"Oh, time is not of years!"

BEAUTIFUL LINES.

The following beautiful lines are from the pen of Mr. PERRY, of the Louisville Journal:—

The sunset's sweet and holy blush Is mingled in the sleeping stream, All nature's deep and solemn hush Is like the silence of a dream;
And peace seems brooding like a dove O'er scenes to musing spirits dear—Sweet Mary, 'tis the hour of love,
And I were blest if thou wert here.

The myriad flowers of every hue Are sinking to their evening rest, Each with a diad drop of dew Soft folded to its sleeping breast.
The birds within yon silent grove Are dreaming that the spring is near—
Sweet Mary, 'tis the hour of love,
And I were blest if thou wert here.

On yon white-cloud the night-wind curls Its lone and dewy wing to sleep, And the sweet stars look out like pearls Thro' the clear waves of heaven's blue deep;
The pale mists float around, above, Like the spirit of a holier sphere—
Sweet Mary, 'tis the hour of love,
And I were blest if thou wert here.

The pale, full moon, in silent pride, O'er yon dark wood is rising now, As lovely as when by thy side I saw it shining on thy brow;
It lights the dew-drops of the grove As hope's bright smile lights beauty's tear—
Sweet Mary, 'tis the hour of love,
And I were blest if thou wert here.

Ah! as I muse, a strange, wild thrill Steal o'er the fibres of my frame—A gentle presence seems to fill My heart with love and life and flame; I feel thy spirit round me move, I know thy soul is hovering near—
Sweet Mary, 'tis the hour of love,
And I am blest if thou wert here.

Funny Complaint of a Young Widow.— A very pretty looking woman, dressed in deep mourning, applied to the Mayor, a few days since, for some legal process to prevent her deceased husband's brother from visiting and making love to her. She said her husband died in December last, and since then his brother Edward had been constantly annoying her with letters and messages, and presenting himself to her for favor. On one recent occasion he had fallen on his knees to implore her compassion, and in that condition he had been seen by her maid, which she considered the house. From her statement, brother Edward is a very perverting and incontinent lover as neither the lady's threats or entreaties would keep him away from the house. The Mayor told this interesting young widow that nothing could be done unless she was in fear of personal injury.—
"O, no, sir," exclaimed the lady very innocently, "he is too much in love with me for that." She then said that she should be compelled to break up house-keeping and leave the city in May, and she went away in sad and pensive mood. We prophesy she will marry brother Edward to get rid of him before she decides to "break up." We suppress names as no public complaint was made.

A late Cork paper contains the following advertisement: To Lrv.—To a small family the second lot of Mr. McDermott's barn, with the privilege of the scuttle. For a family who wants an airy location, we should think this offered superior inducements.

A FRENCHMAN'S ENGLISH.—"Mine fren, have you seen von little dog, with his tail slit and his ears cut short off behind, what I did loose next week, as I was walking up de river in de d— steamboat?" "I did not, Monsieur, but expect to every minute."
"Begar, if he be drown, I will kill him six times in two places."

"There's a time for all things," said a crusty old fellow to his wife.
"I'll believe that," answered his wife, in a sharp vinegar voice, "when you say for your newspaper."

Hit him again, old woman, we'll stand by you in the sixth and not forsake you in the seventh trouble.

ton, Augusta, Ft. Labadie, and St. Charles on Saturday—and arrive in St. Louis early on Sunday morning.

Capt. J. trusts, by the united exertions of himself and the same officers that have been associated with him on the ROWENA, to render the Kansas a favorite in the trade, and solicitude a continuation of the liberal patronage heretofore bestowed upon him, which will, in a short time, make good the loss which he has sustained.

For Freight or passage apply on board or to

C. D. EUTZEN, Herman.

The undersigned would take this occasion to return their sincere thanks to their friends and the public generally for the very liberal patronage extended to the JULIA last season, and hope by strict attention on the part of themselves and officers, to merit a continuance of the same. They would also here remark that they will endeavor to be very prompt in all engagements for freight.

RHEUMATISM CAN BE CURED

BY THE PROPER USE OF MYERS' EMBROCATION!

THIS Sovereign and effectual remedy for that painful disease, was discovered upward-of sixty years ago by the Grand-Father of the undersigned, (a German Physician of his day) and has never been made known out of his family.

Its incredible cures have astonished thousands who have witnessed its power over that disease. Unfortunately, despairing invalids, who have been bed-ridden for years, have been restored to the enjoyment of perfect health. It banishes all pain in a few days, and its efficacy is gladly realized by the patients being able to resume their usual avocations, after having suffered in torments for months and years.— The wonderful success of the EMBROCA-TION, in curing the worst cases of Rheumatism, has acquired for it a celebrity unprecedented, and its fame originated from its own merits. It never has failed to cure Rheumatism, either inflammatory or chronic; and I feel safe in saying it never will fail fairly tried. I pledge myself to refund the cash to any person who uses it properly without being benefited thereby. You who are afflicted may have tried every other remedy but this. Try it, and if it does not cure, it will not cost you anything. By this rule I desire it should be used.

Persons are warned to be on their guard of whom they purchase, as several men have endeavored to make to procure the recipe from which this medicine is prepared. The proprietor deems it his duty to say to the afflicted, that he will furnish travelling agents with written authority for depositing it.
My name is on each bottle, and none genuine unless prepared by HENRY C. MYERS, Fayette, Missouri.

EVIDENCE OF ITS EFFICACY.

Read what those say of the Embrocation who have used it. A few of the hundreds who have testified can only be quoted here.

From Elders T. M. ALLEN and M. P. WILLS.
BOONE COUNTY, Mo., August 21, 1848.
This is to certify, that we have used "Myers' Embrocation" in our families with entire success, and we hereby take great pleasure in recommending to any who may be afflicted with Rheumatism as a most sovereign remedy.

T. M. ALLEN,
M. P. WILLS.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., February 20, 1848.

This is to certify that I was cured of a severe attack of inflammatory Rheumatism, from the use of one bottle of your Embrocation, and hope every fellow-sufferer will use it, for there is no doubt but it will cure any case, however violent; this I can safely assert after using it myself.

Yours, Respectfully,
DELOSSE BROWN.

HENRY C. MYERS, Fayette, Mo.
HAMPTON L. BOON, Clerk of the Supreme Court of Missouri, and Editor of the Jefferson City Metropolitan, speaks of the Embrocation as follows, in his paper:

We desire to call the particular attention of all persons afflicted with Rheumatism to this very valuable medicine. One bottle we believe, will cure any case, however violent.
The senior editor of this paper, during the last winter and present spring, suffered so much from Rheumatism that he was unable to times to walk or stand upon his feet, or even change his position in bed without assistance.— A part of a bottle cured him in a few days.
His son was also afflicted with the same dreadful ailment, and suffered the most excruciating pain until an application of the Embrocation was made, which effected an entire cure.
—Col. Minor of this city, also had a severe attack of Rheumatism this spring from which he suffered severely, and which confined him to his bed for several weeks. Nothing gave him any relief until he sent to Rochester, for a bottle of your Embrocation, and gave it to a neighbor whose wife had been much afflicted with Rheumatism of the Chronic form for years. The effect is so self-evident, that if you see proper, you can send me 50 bottles, as I can dispose of it now that it has been tried here.

Yours, Respectfully,
W. L. WATKINS.

New Arrangement.

HAVING determined to change my business for the present year from the credit to the cash system, I have greatly reduced the price of most articles, and invite my friends and the public to examine my stock and prices, assuring them that they will find goods very cheap. "A quick sixpence is better than a slow shilling." Believing this mainly to be true, and that the interest of both purchaser and seller is promoted by small profits and prompt payment, I have concluded to try the system for the present year, I take pleasure in acknowledging my obligations for the very liberal patronage they have so generously bestowed upon me during my residence in this place, and earnestly solicit a continuance of that support. I have on hand a large stock of DRY GOODS.

Lt. Grocer's Hardware, Queensware, Nails, Cotton Yarn, &c. &c. which I am determined to sell at unusually low prices, as I wish to reduce my stock as much as possible before the spring importation.
